THE 1958 THOROUGHBRED

Foreword

With sincere appreciation and deepest of humility, we stand before our instructors, and the great multitude of those who have gone before us.

We strive and pray to God that we shall find our place in the world and render noble service.

Miss Lula Sweeney

We the senior class of 1958 wish to dedicate this 14th edition of the "Thoroughbred" to those who have meant the most to us, who have supported us, and who have always stood behind us and encouraged us to further achievement when the going was toughest. We can never express truly all that they have meant to us and our appreciation for their belief is us and sacrifice for us. It is with deepest humility that we try in some small way to show our gratitude by dedicating this yearbook to them. So to all our parents and to Miss Lula Sweeney, we now say, we will never forget all you have done for us and meant to us in some of our darkest and most troubled hours.

Class History

Sept. 1946: A very attractive group of little tots gathered around Mrs. Grace Yancey in the primary room. Eyes, wide with wonder, gazed upon a new world. These children, timid, half afraid, gradually found their places in the "Big School" and started the twelve year journey.

Sept. 1954: Year by year we climbed the educational ladder, grade by grade. The work of the elementary school was finished. The eighth grade commencement was outstanding; the girls were dressed in white, the boys in new suits. Twenty eight received their 8th grade diploma.

We look back to our life in the grade school; the teachers were kind and understanding; they helped us when we stumbled and encouraged us onward and upward.

Sept. 1954: As freshmen, we were frightened. Everything was strange and different. Instead of one teacher there was the entire high school faculty; instead of one class group there was the sneering upperclassmen who seemed to notice all our mistakes; then, the work was so hard that many fell by the wayside. By the close of the 9th grade we had lost, Virginia Bell Holderman, Marion Logue, Donnie Brady, Billy Stumph, Billy White, Betty Hood, Carolyn Settles, Barbara Sallee, Charles Isham, Thelma McMichael, Jane Isham, Peggy Ross and Dorothy Settles.

Sept. 1955: At the beginning of our sophomore year there were 17 in our class. So distinctly did we remember the treatment given us the year before that we decided to try the same thing on the incoming freshmen. We must have been successful for we made them tremble at our power and gasp at our wisdom.

Sept. 1956: The ringing of the school bell revealed the absence of Mary Will Wayne; she had become Mrs. Gerald Peavler. In November Judy married but continued her school work. During this year Louella Hilton moved away; Lorna Ann Hall decided to finish high school in three years; William Smock, Gene Noel, and John Hardin stopped school. We had one new classmate, Sue Crady.

Sept. 1957: Seniors! Oh! How glorious to be Seniors, but our hearts were again saddened by the loss of classmates. Judy was living in Lexington, Betty Jane had married, Sue Crady had moved away. Only two boys and eight girls in line for diplomas until Angela S. Milburn enrolled in our class.

Eleven Seniors-four married ones, Alfred, Danny, Angela and Judy. Seven out of the eleven were first graders in this school. Peggy Devine has perfect attendance for eleven years.

So after years and years of study we reached our goal. Together we labored; together we experience the joys of High School Graduation.

Class Will

We, the class of 1958, in eleven individual and distinct parts ready to pass out of this high school, in full possession of a crammed mind, well--trained memory, and almost super-human understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament.

To the Faculty we leave the memory of our class; may they think well of us; may they remember all our outstanding qualities and forget our shortcomings.

To the Junior Class, we leave our patience. It is the only means by which they can endure the Sophomores.

We leave the Sophomore Class our good luck. It made us what we are today, and it should satisfy them.

To the unsophisticated Freshmen we leave what we have learned about the teachers--- which teachers can be bluffed, which are easy and which are hard to please and those whom it is impossible to please.

We leave our heartfelt sympathy for the next four years to the students in the eighth grade.

Mary Loyce Baker leaves her well known tongue--wagging ability to Lavonne Blacketer. It's guaranteed to run.

Carolyn Catlett leaves her privilege to sleep in Government class and never take a test to Randy Mayes.

Alfred Taylor wanted to leave his talent for singing, but decided he would need it; so, he is leaving his arguing technique to Violet Shewmaker--you'll need it.

Danny Milburn leaves his place at the piano to Darrell Harmon. "Music has power to soothe the savage breast."

Angela S. Milburn leaves her opportunity to graduate in three years to Joyce Simpson.

Norma Bishop leaves Jerry Burns to any one who can get him---she is going to take Harvey.

Donna Montgomery leaves her sociology book to Wilna Hall. (Oh, she has one already!)

Peggy Devine leaves her love for basketball and her faithful service as cheerleader for four years to Jane Pinkston.

Margaret Anderson leaves her good grades and quiet disposition to Anna Martha Lawson

Lillian Smock leaves her ability to talk Mr. Rowland out of a test to anyone who dislikes his tests as much as she does.

Judy M. Shewmaker leaves her marriage ideas to anyone who cares to use them.

The Senior Girls leave their grace and charm to all the noisy, impolite girls in the high school--maybe you'll be more ladylike next year.

The Senior Boys leave their enormous appetites to the small, scrawny boys in the high school--you'll be our size some day.

The Class of '58, not the largest and not the smallest, is in our opinion, the best class ever to graduate from Mackville High; theretore, we leave our self esteem and senior dignity to those who follow in our footsteps.

We, the testators, of this will set our hands and seal this twentieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight.

Class Prophecy

Mackville High School
Sept, 1968----------1958 Class Reunion

Ten years have brought many changes. Stroll with me down the corridor to meet each classmate as they arrive.

Peggy, a registered nurse, has been living in South America with her husband, a noted physician. At last Mackville will have a doctor and nurse for Peggy and her husband plan to locate in her home town.

Here's the best Home Economics teacher that Mackville has ever had. Yes, it is Lillian who selected her life's work after winning the "Betty Crocker" contest. She tries new recipes on her husband - he has been able to endure for years.

Donna, a successful operator for Southern Bell, is really "in the money" now. Recently she won the "Voice with A Smile" contest. She works in Hollywood for Jack Bailey.

Next is Judy, our youngest classmate. She is an out standing commerce teacher at M.H.S. Judy was a teacher in Lexington until Bud bought a big farm near Mackville.

No dull moments for Carolyn. Secretary for her dad then to New York. She and her husband now live in Alaska but visits Kentucky frequently. We are disappointed - we wanted to see her twelve children, but she decided to leave them with her mother in Cardwell.

Mary Lois is very happily married; she is a model homemaker; her husband is a prosperous farmer; they own a big farm near Springfield.

Margaret has made a name for herself in the field of education just as we thought she would. She is head of the English Department at the University of Kentucky. Margaret has written three books and is now working on another.

Look! A golden Cadillac! Norma Jean is driving. She started at the bottom of the ladder but kept climbing; she owns the Steel Manufacturing Company. Oh! here's a surprise---she is a "man hater." She thinks men ,are after her money.

Here's the "Big Three", Danny, Angela and Alfred. More than friends -- they are partners or should I say team. Danny has his own Jazz Band "Sputnix Six." Everyone raves about Alfred, the singer; Angela is the "Business Manager;" she knows how to handle money. Danny and Alfred have recorded several hit records but their most recent one is "Rock and Roll Sputnix." Danny is the best musician in America------- But wait - Let's gather around the piano as we did years ago to listen to Danny play the piano. We want Alfred to sing too.

Highlights of the County Tournament

The Washington County Basketball Tournament got underway at Mackville last Thursday evening, February 13, with the Springfield Panthers, Fredericktown Bluejays, Mackville Red Devils and Williamsburg Wildcats taking part.

The opening round of the three-day session saw Mackville unleash a team effort to defeat the Fredericktown quintet 73-54. Stumph was high point for Mackville with 18 and Mudd tallied 27 for the Bluejays' losing cause.

Tip Off of Final Game

Saturday night, the final round of play, saw the Springfield Panthers going against Haydon's Red Devils. This encounter proved to be one of the best with neither team having more than a 4-point lead at anytime during the game. The final whistle saw Mackville with 56 and Springfield 56. Springfield was able to sink 6 in the overtime while Mackville could manage only 4. The final score was 62 to 60.
